“Shortcomings”

From “The Valley of Vision: A Collection of Puritan Prayers”

O LIVING GOD,

I bless Thee
that I see the worst of my heart as well as the best of it,
that I can sorrow for those sins that carry me
from Thee,
that it is Thy deep and dear mercy to threaten punishment so that I may return, pray, live.

My sin is to look on my faults and be discouraged,
or to look on my good and be puffed up.
I fall short of Thy glory every day by spending
hours unprofitably,
by thinking that the things I do are good,
when they are not done to Thy end,
nor spring from the rules of Thy Word.

My sin is to fear what never will be;
I forget to submit to Thy will, and fail to be quiet there.

But Scripture teaches me that Thy active will reveals a steadfast purpose on my behalf,
and this quietens my soul,
and makes me love Thee.

Keep me always in the understanding that saints mourn more for sin than other men,
for when they see how great is Thy wrath
against sin,
and how Christ's death alone pacifies that wrath,
that makes them mourn the more.

Help me to see that although I am in the wilderness,
it is not all briars and barrenness.

I have bread from heaven, streams from the rock,
light by day, fire by night,
thy dwelling place and thy mercy seat.
I am sometimes discouraged by the way,
but though winding and trying, it is safe
and short.

Death dismays me, but my great High Priest
stands in its waters,
and will open me a passage,
and beyond is a better country.
While I live let my life be exemplary,
When I die may my end be peace.

Theological Term of the Week – Regeneration

Regeneration – That aspect of salvation which describes the imparting of life into the dead soul. It is the aspect of salvation which is referred to by Christ as being “born again” (John 3:1-21). It is also the aspect of salvation which is illustrated by the resurrection of Lazarus.

Afflictions Sanctified by the Word

William Cowper

Oh how I love Thy holy Word,
Thy gracious covenant, O Lord!
It guides me in the peaceful way;
I think upon it all the day.

What are the mines of shining wealth,
The strength of youth, the bloom of health!
What are all joys compared with those Thine everlasting Word bestows!

Long unafflicted, undismay'd,
In pleasure's path secure I stray'd;
Thou mad'st me feel thy chast'ning rod,
And straight I turned unto my God.

What though it pierced my fainting heart,
I bless'd Thine hand that caused the smart:
It taught my tears awhile to flow,
But saved me from eternal woe.

Oh! hadst Thou left me unchastised,
Thy precepts I had still despised;
And still the snare in secret laid
Had my unwary feet betray'd.

I love Thee, therefore, O my God,
And breathe towards Thy dear abode;
Where, in Thy presence fully blest,
Thy chosen saints for ever rest.
